

"FB" is an exciting band composed of six Canadian musicians from Brazil, Chile and Romania, each with a rich musical résumé prior to joining the ensemble. Mixing elements of samba, bossa nova, forró, chorinho with Afro-Brazilian, Andean, Parisian and Balkanic rhythms, this band applies its very own brand of world-folk to original compositions as well as to the work of revered bands such as Canada's Leonard Cohen and France's greatest chanson poet, Georges Brassens. For all the musical mixing and matching that audiences and critics have come to expect from the band, FB can also deliver hours on end of recognizable Brazilian classics, interpreted in their original form."
